

Colorado Ag Water Alliance

"Committed to the preservation of agriculture through the wise use of Colorado's water resources"

Stream Management Plan Workshop: Longmont
November 5th
9:00AM-1:00PM

- | | |
|----------------------|---|
| 8:30-9:00 | Registration |
| 9:00-9:10 | Welcome and Introduction – Sean Cronin, St. Vrain and Left Hand Water Conservancy District, and Greg Peterson, Colorado Ag Water Alliance |
| 9:10 – 9:30 | "What do Stream Management Plans Have to do with Ag?"
– Greg Peterson, Colorado Ag Water Alliance |
| 9:30 – 9:50 | "St. Vrain and Left Hand Water Conservancy District Stream Management Plan" - Sean Cronin, St. Vrain and Left Hand Water Conservancy District |
| 9:50 – 10:00 | Break |
| 10:00 – 10:15 | Jim Yahn, Manager of the North Sterling and Prewitt Reservoirs, and Chair of the Colorado Water Conservation Board |
| 10:15 – 11:30 | Panel Discussion: Irrigators and Stream Management Plans
-Greg Higel, Farmer in Alamosa, CO
-Terry Plummer, Superintendent of the Left Hand Ditch Company and Jessie Olson, Lefthand Watershed Oversight Group
-Jesse Kruthaupt, Rancher in Gunnison, CO
-Facilitated by Greg Peterson, Colorado Ag Water Alliance |
| 11:30 – 12:00 | Serve Lunch |
| 12:00 – 12:45 | Break-out Sessions/Working lunch
-Group discussions with facilitators
-Groups report-out discussions |
| 12:45 – 1:00 | John Stulp, Special Policy Advisor to the Governor for Water and former Commissioner of Agriculture |